Since 1968 Ramanand Patel has been one of the the world's leading Yoga teachers. Within the framework of the Teacher Training program of the Iyengar Yoga Institute of San Francisco, which he co-founded in 1974, he trained and educated a great multitude of teachers, many of whom went on to become famous internationally.

His vast depth of knowledge regarding physical problems, his technical understanding regarding Asana and Pranayama, and his deep understanding of the fundamental questions of philosophy and psychology are well-balanced by his keen sense of humor.

All of these qualities and skills serve to create a thought-provoking and challenging class with regards to every aspect of Yoga.
